

Complete Raw Vegetable Storage Systems & Service

Potato Refrigeration Systems

Features and Benefits

Quality Construction	Custom built for potato growers with quality and performance in mind
	Full brushed aluminum cabinet with louvered brackets and supports
	Robust electrical components such as Square D contactors for increased life expectancy
	Patented floating tube coil designed to eliminate tube end leaks
Optional Compressors	Screw compressor configurations are available
Energy Savings	Full floating head design allows head pressure control via computerized controls
Extended Run Times	Defrost on demand with computer controls allows the minimum amount of defrosts
Computerized Controls	Factory installed/field installed
	Multiple safety features including crankcase heater protection, compressor protection and rotation, and flexible alarms
	On site displays and remote access via the telephone or ethernet connections for simplified and accurate troubleshooting